Last Minute Stuff - In No Particular Order

01.	Visit your dentist, eye doctor and family physician for a complete check up.
02.	Pack a small medicine kit in consultation with your family physician for minor ailments and illnesses
03.	Make copies of all the documents and certificates you are carrying and leave a set at home. & carry 1 or 2 copies with u also.
04.	Write down and keep handy, important phone numbers of contacts and Bank A/c numbers of your parents
05.	Inform the International Office nearest to your Univ. about your arrival date, time etc. well in advance.
06.	Keep the ph nos of the IO and Youth Hostel separately and handy for you to call them from the airport
07.	Have a hair cut before leaving as it is pretty expensive in Germany, as much as 10 Euro for a sitting

Note

Items indicated with a ' * ' are optional. Condiments and Spices are not covered in the above list.

The above list hopefully indicates most of the items that you may be in immediate requirement for the first few weeks until you settle down well at Germany. This is just a guideline to help you pick and choose the necessary things

Avoid packing Spices & Condiments along with clothes, lest they should smell nasty when you unpack.

Exercise caution and wisdom to give priority to the items that are a basic necessity, in accordance with the Regulation of the Airlines for the weight of
